Achieving Dreams Through Higher Education

Welcome Week

The February intake at C3S Business school welcomed a diverse group of students from various countries. The academic introduction was led by Professor Aida Mehrad and Fernando, while Jordan and Sam hosted extracurricular activities. Professor Josep talked about Assignment Policy and Academic Schedules, Professor Eduardo discussed career services, and Professor Yvette spoke about Business English. The week was a success, with informative sessions and interactive discussions that provided valuable insights into various aspects of our business school.

Workshop

Professor Dr. Francisco Rosique

Recently, C3S Business School hosted an incredible workshop led by the esteemed Professor Dr. Francisco Rosique, designed to provide students with a comprehensive introduction to the world of business. Through a combination of interactive lectures, case studies, and group activities, students were able to gain a deep understanding of the key principles and strategies that underpin successful businesses. Dr. Rosique's engaging and dynamic teaching style made the workshop both informative and fun, and students left feeling inspired and excited to pursue their career goals in the dynamic and ever-changing world of business. If you're looking to embark on a career in business, be sure to check out the amazing resources and opportunities available at C3S Business School! - Workshop content

Professor Emilio Guerra

Professor Emilio's recent session at C3S Business School delved into the fascinating world of Netflix's business model and management strategies. He highlighted how they disrupted the traditional media industry and became a global leader through their customer-centric approach and constant innovation. This case study provided valuable insights into their data-driven decision-making and how they adapt to market trends to stay ahead. Attendees left with inspiration and new perspectives on achieving business success.

During the Welcome Week at C3S Business School, a football practice was held to bring the students together and foster a sense of community. The students had a great time playing the game and bonding with their peers. It was an excellent opportunity to promote teamwork and collaboration, important skills for their future professional lives

WORK IN BARCELONA!

City Tour

The students and staff team embarked on an exciting journey through Barcelona, one of the world's most iconic cities and the students' new home. The adventure began at the impressive Sagrada Familia, a magnificent church still under construction, where all the students explored the surrounding gardens. They then continued to Passeig de Gracia, a high street renowned for its stunning architecture and commercial highlights, before reaching the historical Plaça Catalunya.

Here, they started their journey along the famous Ramblas, famous for its vibrant food and gift stands. They took a break in the old part of Barcelona, El Gotico, for lunch at the famous restaurant, Casa Muyo. In the second half of the day, they discovered the beautiful beach district of Barceloneta, where they enjoyed a thrilling boat tour. This unforgettable experience allowed the students to immerse themselves in the city's rich culture and history, forging unforgettable memories in their new home.

How to be a successful leader in changing times

Leadership can be understood in a variety of ways. What would you say about it?

The term “leadership” is frequently challenging to define, despite the fact that numerous academics and authors express their opinions regarding effective leaders. Effective leadership, according to Tony Blair, entails “saying no, not yes” while according to Colin Powell, it entails “solving problems.” These interpretations convey an aspect of the image, but I think they fall short. Peter Drucker defined a leader as simply “someone who has followers.”
In essence, it’s “the skill of inspiring people to realise a shared vision or objective” while simultaneously “looking out for the needs and growth of everyone engaged.”

While understanding leadership may be the initial step, applying it is a process that must be continually learned. And that’s what C3S Business School students, in particular, appreciate

I would like to take a moment to thank the admissions team and the visa compliance team. Both teams have gone the extra mile and have proactively supported me in my journey to get a positive response for my student visa application. Special thanks to Gresha and kudos to Shrishti who worked closely with me to resolve my application concerns. Thank you so much once again for your support and your guidance

I'm a Pakistani national and got my admission in Level 4 Business Management, applied my visa application through Spanish Embassy Abu Dhabi, UAE. Yesterday I got my passport with visa pasted on it and I'm very happy. The whole experience from my admission to getting my visa was very well, The school administration team was very supportive and proactive. I would like to appreciate specially Ms. Gresha and their compliance team through this entire time. Ms. Gresha helped me in preparation of each required document. I'm really really excited to join C3S business school and begin my studies.

C3S Business is really a friendly place to be, with my few years of experience. The staffs are approachable and helpful, the university feels very safe and homely as they know we left our family back home, for us to be here, they gives all the support we need to be able to make a great stand.
The first few months though it was rough, but with the encouragement and guidance I was able to secure an Internship which has really helped me and my life in Spain.
Thanks
