From September 2003, the University has been complying with the Scottish Credit and Qualifications Framework (SCQF) by adopting its terminology to describe the accumulation of credit leading to educational qualifications. The terminology consists of levels and credits.

SCQF credit definitions of taught postgraduate qualifications of higher education institutions are as follows:

Level	Typical qualifications and their credit definitions
SCQF 11	Masters	Minimum 180 with minimum of 150 at SCQF 11
SCQF 11	Postgraduate Diploma	Minimum 120 with minimum of 90 at SCQF 11
SCQF 11	Postgraduate Certificate	Minimum 60 with minimum of 40 at SCQF 11

Other Information

Any module which spans semesters may be listed more than once on the transcript. The final grade and credit value for the module is normally shown against the first record.

A student's academic record may include a pass at SCQF Level 10 against a Level 11 module, where the student is deemed to have met the learning outcomes at the lower level. A maximum of 30 credits at level 10 may count towards the award of Postgraduate Diploma or Master qualification.
